WHAT BETTER WAY TO CELEBRATE YOUR LOVE THAN WITH A ROMANTIC ISLAND HONEYMOON? EMIRATES BRIDE SCOURS THE EARTH TO FIND THE BEST PLACES TO GET WRECKED

CAPE WELIGAMA

LOCATION: Galle, Sri Lanka
TIME TO DESTINATION: 4hrs 15min
FLIGHTS: Emirates Airline has three daily direct flights to Colombo. There are private transfers for the two and a half hour drive to the hotel

With its diverse landscapes of breezy mountains, bountiful plantations, fascinating world heritage sights and some of the most immaculate beaches you'll ever step foot upon, Sri Lanka dishes up dollops of romance with a side order of adventure. At Cape Weligama, the newest member of Sri Lanka's southern coast's portfolio of luxury resorts, you can appreciate the island's rugged scenery without even having to leave the 12 acre site as here everything is offered on tap. Built as it is on a jutting peninsula, the views work their way into the 'not to be deleted' section of your memory bank forever. In fact, once you sit yourself down to lunch at the edge of the cliff and drink in the panoramic views, it is incredibly difficult to wrench yourself away.

From here you can admire the clusterlike arrangement of the 40 villas and suites – designed by Asia's most talked about architect, Lek Bunnag – the prismatic gardens, the titanium yellow beaches on either side of the headland and the crescent-shaped pool with the bar beneath it. There's also a separate family pool – on top of the private pools shared amongst some of the villas.

The second property for Resplendent Ceylon hotels after Ceylon Tea Trails located in the mountainous interior (a 20-minute seaplane flight over tea country connects the two sister properties), as with Tea Trails the chefs at Cape Weligama are committed to high-end food. Breakfasts include fresh fruit platters, pastries and bread that can compete with (and beat) some of Paris' most celebrated patisseries, followed by your choice of eggs. Be sure to try the buffalo curd (similar to Greek yoghurt) with palm treacle. Lunches and dinners feature fresh, wholesome western and fragrantly spiced Sri Lankan dishes with plenty of succulent seafood options. Two meals a day along with premium drinks are included in your board making this a paperless stay – so much more civilised!

Interiors are bright and breezy with the blue, white and yellow colour scheme of the villas lending itself perfectly to the upmarket house in the Hamptons look – with a local twist courtesy of the art and craftwork from communities Cape Weligama's charitable foundation have adopted. It's not just the guests that the family focuses on: a cut of all profits goes to their foundation helping those affected by the 2004 tsunami and the civil war which ended in 2009.

Activities range from surfing lessons, scuba diving, whale watching (in season) and lake kayaking to rice paddy bicycling and elephant safaris – Sri Lanka accounts for seven per cent of the world's elephant population. They can even arrange leopard safaris for the wild at heart. Then again, you may prefer to pull up a lounger on your shaded veranda with a pot of the freshly brewed single origin Ceylon tea for which the isle is famed. Nowhere in the world do they manage to combine serene simplicity with sublime splendour with such aplomb.

THE EXTRA MILE: You may feel as though you're stranded far away from anything, located as you are on top of a precipice with miles and miles of sea before you, but that doesn't mean you won't benefit from highly skilled service – many of the butlers here have cut their cloth in the UAE's best hotels, so they know a thing or two about looking after you.
